ORDER

HEMANT GUPTA, J.

The challenge in the present revision petition is to the order dated 13.10.1990 passed by the learned Executing Court, whereby claim of the petitioner that a sum of Rs.17,793.70 has been deposited in excess, was rejected and the execution was dismissed as fully satisfied.

While determining the amount of compensation payable to the land owners, a sum of Rs.74,392.30 was paid by the State. Subsequently, an application was filed that the payment has been made in excess and thus, the excess amount be refunded. The Court has found that the calculations given by the State does not prove it and consequently, dismissed the application.

From the grounds in the memorandum of revision, it can not be made out as to how the amount was paid in excess to the claimants.

Therefore, I do not find any illegality or irregularity in the order passed by the learned Executing Court, which may warrant interference of this Court in exercise of its revisional jurisdiction.

Dismissed.
